Statement of Security Capabilities and Policy for Transmitting Payment Card Details

Effective Date: September 14, 2024

1. Introduction

At Gusthold Music Publisher (“we,” “our,” “us”), safeguarding your payment card information is a top priority. This Statement outlines our security capabilities and policies for the secure transmission of payment card details to ensure that your information is protected against unauthorized access and misuse.

In order to minimize the risk of security incidents, we fully outsource all payment processing to Foxy.io. Foxy.io is PCI DSS (Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard) Compliant as a Level 1 Service Provider, and is listed on both Visa and MasterCard's global registries. Anytime you submit payment information via our website, you are submitting through Foxy.io's secure infrastructure. If you opt to save your payment information during checkout, that information is stored at Foxy. We do not have access to your payment details except for the last 4 digits, card type, and expiration date.

2. Incident Response and Reporting

Reporting: In the event of a security incident involving payment card information, we will promptly notify affected parties and take necessary actions to mitigate any potential risks.

3. User Responsibilities

To further protect your payment card information:

Secure Devices: Ensure that the device you use to access our services is secure and protected with up-to-date security software.

Safeguard Credentials: Do not share your payment card details or login credentials with others. Report any suspicious activity to us immediately.

4. Policy Updates

We may update this Statement of Security Capabilities and Policy periodically to reflect changes in our security practices or regulatory requirements. Any changes will be posted on our website with an updated effective date.
